To Whom It May Concern,

I would like to take this opportunity to provide a recommendation for Gabriel King who is currently attending the Actors Studio Stockholm 2023 actors program. I have been working both privately and at the school with Gabriel for over a year. Gabriel's goals were very clear from the beginning – he wanted to pursue his goals of becoming an actor and was very enthusiastic about this. Since working with him, Gabriel has been applying himself in the lessons we are providing at the school with utmost determination. He is growing both in personal development as well as in his artistic nature – expanding within his physical instrument – body, voice and emotional life. While he is at the beginning stages of learning the craft and how to apply the tools of acting effectively, he shows a lot of promise. With continued attention and training, we feel Gabriel would no doubt further transform into an artist who should pursue his goals in the performing arts world.

I highly recommend Gabriel in his pursuit of this work/career.

Sincerely,

JD Glickman
